We once again defeated our venturer unit at the Big Far Cup, this time in a trivia and games challenge. Continued our squire training. Currently we've got 2 squires, both of whom are approaching completion, and should be ready for knighting in the not too distant future. We also have one un-invested, pre-squire? person? She's also almost ready for squiring, she just needs to attend an rrc and 2 more crew events, but she's doing her HSC at the moment, so that'll happen in it own time. We have our busniess and planning meeting recently, and have put on our calendar to organise an evening event for the venturers of the entire region. We're unsure as yet exactly what form this night will take, but we'll provide details as we get further along with the organisation.
